

<Back

 Print

Google Sued--A Legitimate Lawsuit

Google was sued today by Jeffrey Toback (D-Oceanside) who filed the lawsuit Thursday claiming Google Inc. generates "billions of dollars from the pornography trade and illicit profiteers."

Google and many other search engines cache web pages and images from all over the Internet, making them potentially one of the largest distributors of pornography on the Internet.

The news article includes a poll on the right-hand side, where people are voting whether or not they think the lawsuit is legitimate.

This is an opportunity to let the Internet community know that you want something done about Internet pornography. Thanks for your efforts, together we are making a difference.

The poll is to the right of the article.

Vote: Google lawsuit

In my opinion, this lawsuit against Google is

...

- Legitimate
- Frivolous
- Worth a shot
- Not worthy of media attention
- Dude, I use Yahoo!

Vote

Staff,
The CP80 Foundation

email: info@cp80.org
web: <http://www.cp80.org>

Forward email

 SafeUnsubscribe®

This email was sent to matthew@thinkatomic.com, by info@cp80.org
Instant removal with SafeUnsubscribe™ | Privacy Policy.

Email Marketing by

CP80 Foundation | 4201 Wilson Blvd., #110-459 | Arlington | VA | 22203-1589